

Be First in Line to Win with SourceScrub

Securing deals now often relies on a firm's ability to proactively identify and connect with promising targets early, and then build trust and credibility with companies, sometimes for years, before they're ready to transact.

But data grows stale quickly, and manually staying on top of every promising company and their space means you miss opportunities for meaningful interactions. Using deal sourcing technology to track high-priority targets, automatically monitoring for signs of progress and transaction readiness, means you know when to reach out and how to stay ahead of the pack.

Effortlessly Stay in the Know

Receive automatic alerts each time a target company or its competitors attend a conference, receive an industry award, hire a new executive, and more — even if they're private.
